Summary:

Y. B. Chavan College of Pharmacy celebrated 14th "National Voters Day" on behalf of ELC and NSS unit. The principal, management, staff and Students participated in this event and explained about the democracy and "Right to Vote" for every human being. On the occasion of Voter's Day, a voter's pledge was held. Where the students took pledge that they will cast their vote fearlessly for the betterment of the country without considering religion, caste, creed, language or any inducement. Principal Dr. M. H. Dehghan motivated students to use their Right to Vote as youth's participation in political process would strengthen Indian Democracy.
